

Dance at Country Club.

Several hundred members of Honolulu society gathered at the Country Club last evening in response to invitations from Mr. McInerney, the club president, and the board of directors, to attend the opening ball. The affair was in celebration of the completion of the addition to the clubhouse and was in every way a brilliant success.

The club ball was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and flowers, and colored electric lights, and the soft strains of Hawaiian music and the moonlight that flooded the grounds lent much to the enchantment of the evening. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour, and the guests danced until long after midnight.

In the receiving line were Mr. Jas. D. McInerney, Miss Ella McInerney, Mr. H. H. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Dillingham.

The young people gathered at the beach at 5 o'clock and after a delightful swim and supper danced in the moonlight. Among those present were Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Hilda von Holt, Miss Maye Biven, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Eloise Wichman, Miss Rosamond Swaney, Miss Carol Low, Miss Clorinda Low, Miss Ruth Richards, Miss Margaret Center, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Margaret Jones, Mr. Carter Galt, Mr. Herman von Holt, Mr. Francis Brown, Mr. Fred Schaefer, Mr. Carl Schaefer, Mr. Vernon Tenney, Mr. Ernest Gay, Mr. Atherton Richards, Mr. Alan Renton, Mr. Woods Low, Mr. Arthur Gilman, Mr. Ten Center, Mr. Edward Schenkel, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Dixon Nott and the young hostesses.

Party for Miss Girvin.

L.H.U.E., August 27.—Mrs. G. W. Girvin, mother of Mrs. W. H. Rice, Jr., and daughter Miss Louise, returned to Honolulu Saturday after having spent a month or so among friends and relatives here. On Friday last from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., Miss Louise was the guest of honor at a delightful party of young folks who gathered on the beautiful Niumalu beach for the purpose of giving the popular little tennis expert a farewell send off. And seldom is there so much real delight crowded into such space of time as there seemed on this occasion. Into the beautiful clear, sparkling mountain stream, which forms the Niumalu river they plunged, where for nearly two hours, they enjoyed themselves as only happy children can. Those present were Miss Louise Girvin, Harrison Rice, Paul Rice, Richard Rice, Miss Dora Broadbent, Homer Lydgate, Percy Lydgate, Richard Sloggett, Mar Katherine Coney, Clarissa Coney, Geo. Hogg, and Willie Wolters.—Garden Island.

RECREATIONS
"THE CAMPUS" IS HARTMAN'S BEST

Through three acts of rollicking comedy, Honolulu giggled and laughed as the Ferris Hartman Company of talented players developed a bright, breezy musical comedy of college days, "The Campus."

Walter De Leon, who assumed the role of varsity leader, is responsible for a play that has had a successful season covering a period of months at Los Angeles and San Francisco, not to say the long runs at other Pacific Coast cities.

De Leon, and Roscoe Arbuckle, as "Richard Tellman, popularly known as 'Fat,'" were more or less constantly in the spot light last night, as the thread of a plot was unwound for the delectation of a capacity house at the Hawaiian opera house last night.

The Campus is filled with interesting situations, interspersed with pleasing and new songs to Honoluluans. Football, baseball and other heroes are brought into the three-act comedy in a manner that leaves everybody happy for the introduction.

Ferris Hartman didn't have much of a part to display his peculiar mirth-provoking qualifications in the Campus. Hartman fills the role of Bismark, a college janitor. However, in De Leon's book, Hartman is not obliged to "sit out," by any manner of means, as the merry old fellow, dear to the merry bunch of college lads is ever on hand with cheery and spontaneous repartee whenever he is made the target of their witty sallies.

Miss Muggins Davies, as "Nellie Perkins" and one who ever believes in "Bobby," won admiration on every hand. Miss Davies appeared in several stunning costumes in the course of the evening's entertainment.

As a college widow, in Mrs. MacLauren, Miss Josie Hart made a distinct hit.

The Campus will be repeated this evening and tomorrow evening. The following is the complete cast:

Starchy Indigestion

A Very Common Form of Dyspepsia Vanquished By Eating Grape-Nuts

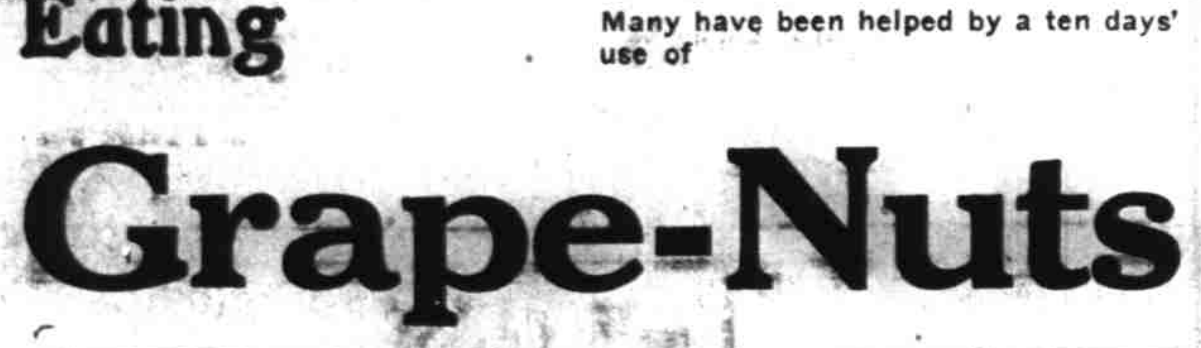

The starchy foods so much used nowadays—white bread, pastry, potatoes, porridges, etc.—often cause "starch indigestion" and a long line of troubles because the digestive organs are unable to deal with the excess of this kind of food-material.

It remains in the stomach, partially ferments, causing gas and sour-eructations, besides preventing the body from absorbing the full amount of food necessary. Some persons often feel hungry a short time after eating. In making Grape-Nuts a food expert treats whole wheat and barley in much the same way the human digestive organs act on food—with heat, moisture and time—the diastase in the barley and the process of manufacture changing the starch into a form of soluble sugar; thus making it easy of digestion.

In this way he devised a means of assisting weak digestive organs to deal with natural food with ease and not only build up brain and nerves, but strengthen the digestive organs at the same time.

Many have been helped by a ten days' use of

Grape-Nuts
